A Global Publisher for Outstanding Authors

It is always a pleasure to work with the editorial and publication team at IIIT. Each person involved does everything possible to ensure that the author's argument is presented clearly and convincingly and that the final version is published in an attractive format and style.

Professor Charles Butterworth
University of Maryland, Baltimore, MD

IIIT takes great care in the production of their books. Meticulous attention was given to the copyediting, proofreading, design and layout of our book on Education. IIIT should be proud of the quality and high standard of their publications!

Professor Ziauddin Sardar and Dr. Jeremy Henzell-Thomas
Middlesex University and Centre of Islamic Studies at Cambridge University, UK, respectively

What a wonderful job! It is amazing the way you upgrade the language, pinpoint the ambiguities in the text and thoroughly check the quotations. Honestly, you have beautified the book and I am extremely grateful for that.

Professor Zulfiqar Ali Shah
Cardinal Stritch University, Milwaukee, WI

Now I feel its not mine, it's our contribution. I am amazed that my book is in the right hands!

Dr. Sharmin Islam
University Sains Malaysia, Penang, Malaysia

IIIT publications are important to me because they are written by committed Muslims trying to address contemporary issues and figure out solutions using authentic Muslim sources.

Dr. Katherine Bullock
University of Toronto, Mississauga, ON

For the past four decades, IIIT has published academic and reference works that contribute to intellectual development in the nexus of Islamic thought, social sciences, and reform of education.

With a recent focus on education in Muslim societies, IIIT's Advancing Education in Muslim Societies (AEMS) project is launching a book series that will take an in-depth look at themes in the areas of curriculum, pedagogy, leadership, governance, and policy. Authors with research interest in K-12 and higher education are encouraged to submit their manuscripts.

We will support authors who are near completion of a research study in the areas listed above and are interested in publishing their work. We accept single authored or edited book proposals.

IIIT maintains a high standard of quality for its publications. An experienced and dedicated editorial team works closely with authors and expert reviewers to ensure that books are produced to the highest professional and academic standards.

FAQ

How can I be sure the IIIT books meet academic standards?
We send all manuscripts to 2-3 peer-reviewers before we make decisions on publication. Our peer-reviewers are leading professors and researchers at institutions in the US, Canada, and Europe.

Will you publish my thesis or dissertation?
Yes, dissertations and theses in education will be considered. However, they will need to be revised into book form meeting IIIT criteria before being submitted to us.

Will you help me secure permission to use copyrighted material?
Authors are best situated to secure permission to use copyrighted material, as well as to make sure that the manuscript is free of plagiarism or copyright violations.

How long will it take to publish my manuscript?
Editorial requirements differ dependent on the level and stages of work demanded of each manuscript. Whilst no firm timeline can be offered, we try to meet a general duration of 18 months from approved copy to print stage.
