Proficiency in English

A high standard of proficiency in English is required. Applicants will need to submit evidence of this, either through an examination certificate, or preferably a letter from the course supervisor. The required evidence should be submitted with the application. An interview either in person or on skype may also be conducted in this respect.

Note: This is an intensive course and the organisers insist on full attendance from 9am – 6pm. If Applicants are not able to commit themselves to this schedule they should not apply.

All applicants will be responsible for their own Health Insurance

CV & Transcript & Recommendation Letter

Please attach updated CV, a recommendation letter by your supervisor or lecturer, and a recent transcript.

Students will be required to present a report on the quality of their educational experience to date, including both positive and negative aspects, how these impacted their educational development, and met their social and academic needs.
