Winter School East Africa – 2019
An Islamic Course on

CONTEMPORARY ISLAMIC THOUGHT AND EPISTEMOLOGICAL INTEGRATION

umma university
Fostering Knowledge and Innovation

International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT) in collaboration with Umma University, Kenya have organized an advanced course on Contemporary Islamic Thought and Epistemological Integration at the Umma University Kajiado campus, Kenya from Sunday 7th July to Monday 15th July 2019.

International Institute of Islamic Thought

Introduction

In 2007, the International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT) started a Summer Student Program as a way to reach out to students and to expand IIIT educational programs. The program was meant to give students a broad overview of Islam, while exposing them to major contemporary Islamic issues including unity and uniqueness of God (tawhid), renewal (tajdid), reform (islah), human as the steward (khalifah, istikhlaf), consultation (shura), and global Muslim community (ummah).

The IIIT Advanced Course on Contemporary Islamic thought and Epistemological Integration is an offshoot of the IIIT Summer School program and is targeted at postgraduate students intending to pursue their research in an Islamic area. It is a 7-day intensive program. It would consist of lectures, group discussions, presentations by individual participants and assignment.

Dates & Venue

Sunday, 7th July 2019 to Monday, 15th July 2019, at Umma University, Kajiado Campus, Kenya.

Core Courses

There are seven core courses as follows:
1. Methodologies in Integration of Knowledge
2. Approaching the Qur'an
3. Approaching the Sunnah
4. Foundations of Belief, Knowledge, and Ethics (Usul al-Din)
5. Islamic Jurisprudence and Maqasid (Fiqh and Maqasid al-Shari'ah)
6. Muslim History and Civilization
7. Contemporary Islamic Thought

In addition to these courses, there will be an enrichment course on "Islamic Personal, Community and Corporate Financing"

Objectives

The main objectives and outcomes of the core courses are:

1. Acquiring knowledge of major Islamic concepts and their manifestations in history, arts, politics, ethics, aesthetics, and other areas of life
2. defining, constructing, and analyzing the Qur'anic worldview
3. interpreting and designing research methodology in Islamic thought and knowledge
4. critiquing and evaluating both Muslim history and contemporary Western thought
5. developing and implementing critical thinking
6. Recognizing and assessing major concepts and ideas of the IIIT.

Target Participants

Participants for the course are expected to be between 20 and 35 years of age. They should be PhD, Masters and/or Undergraduate students intending to do their research on any Islamic contemporary discipline leading to integration of knowledge. They should be degree holders (or equivalent) and should possess basic knowledge of Islamic Beliefs, Values and Ethics, Islamic History and Islamic Thought.

Resource Persons

The expected Resource Persons to the course are as follows:

1. Prof. Hamza Njozi
2. Sh. Tawaqal Juma
3. Prof. Muhammad Biraima
4. Prof. AbdulHafiz Walusimbi
5. Prof. AbuFadhl Mohsen Ebrahim
6. Prof. Salisu Shehu
7. Dr. Uthman Sulaiman Kabuye

Application

The interested qualified brothers/sisters should apply on the attached form to reach the undermentioned not later than 10th June 2019. Due to limited space, first come criteria shall apply.

Send your application to:

Abdul Hamid Slatch
Regional Coordinator
IIIT, East Africa
Email: abdulhamid.slatch@yahoo.com

Prof. Mohamed Karama,
Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academics
Umma University, Kenya
Email: mkarama@umma.ac.ke

Application Form

Personal Details

Surname: …………………………… Other Names: …………………………………………Age…….................

Address: ………

Telephone: …………………….........E-mail Address ……………………………………………………………

Educational Qualifications

First Degree ……………………………………………………………………………………………..............

Institution …………………………………………………………………………..Year…………….…

Additional Qualifications

Institution……………………………………………………………………………Year…………….…

Current Place of Work (If you are not employed, please skip to the next section)

Name and Address of Organization:..

....

Position and Responsibilities ....

Current Institution of Study...

Name and Address of Institution:...

Program of Study and Area of Research ....

Motivation/ Purpose

Briefly describe below your motivation for wanting to participate in the IIIT Advanced Course

....

....

....

Brief Profile

Please provide a brief profile of yourself which will appear in the brochure for the school.

....

....

....

Recommendation

Recommendation from Your Academic Supervisor or Community Leader

………

Name …………………………………………….........................Position ....

Signature……………………………………………..Date…………….………

Testimony: This is to be signed by the applicant.
I testify that all the information provided in this form is correct.

Name ………………………………………………………Signature…………………….............Date……………

Winter School East Africa – 2019
An Islamic Course on

CONTEMPORARY ISLAMIC THOUGHT AND EPISTEMOLOGICAL INTEGRATION

Al-Maktoum College of Engineering and Technology, Dar-es-Salaam

International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT) in collaboration with Al-Maktoum College of Engineering and Technology, Dar-es-Salaam have organized an advanced course on Contemporary Islamic Thought and Epistemological Integration at the Al-Maktoum College of Engineering and Technology, campus from Sunday 7th July to Monday 15th July 2019.

International Institute of Islamic Thought

Introduction

In 2007, the International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT) started a Summer Student Program as a way to reach out to students and to expand IIIT educational programs. The program was meant to give students a broad overview of Islam, while exposing them to major contemporary Islamic issues including unity and uniqueness of God (tawhid), renewal (tajdid), reform (islah), human as the steward (khalifah, istikhlaf), consultation (shura), and global Muslim community (ummah).

The IIIT Advanced Course on Contemporary Islamic thought and Epistemological Integration is an offshoot of the IIIT Summer School program and is targeted at postgraduate students intending to pursue their research in an Islamic area. It is a 7-day intensive program. It would consist of lectures, group discussions, presentations by individual participants and assignment.

Dates & Venue

Sunday, 7th July 2019 to Monday, 15th July 2019, at Al-Maktoum College of Engineering & Technology

Core Courses

There are seven core courses as follows:
1. Methodologies in Integration of Knowledge
2. Approaching the Qur'an
3. Approaching the Sunnah
4. Foundations of Belief, Knowledge, and Ethics (Usul al-Din)
5. Islamic Jurisprudence and Maqasid (Fiqh and Maqasid al-Shari'ah)
6. Muslim History and Civilization
7. Contemporary Islamic Thought

In addition to these courses, there will be an enrichment course on "Islamic Personal, Community and Corporate Financing"

Objectives

The main objectives and outcomes of the core courses are:

1. Acquiring knowledge of major Islamic concepts and their manifestations in history, arts, politics, ethics, aesthetics, and other areas of life
2. defining, constructing, and analyzing the Qur'anic worldview
3. interpreting and designing research methodology in Islamic thought and knowledge
4. critiquing and evaluating both Muslim history and contemporary Western thought
5. developing and implementing critical thinking
6. Recognizing and assessing major concepts and ideas of the IIIT.

Target Participants

Participants for the course are expected to be between 20 and 35 years of age. They should be PhD, Masters and/or Undergraduate students intending to do their research on any Islamic contemporary discipline leading to integration of knowledge. They should be degree holders (or equivalent) and should possess basic knowledge of Islamic Beliefs, Values and Ethics, Islamic History and Islamic Thought.

Resource Persons

The expected Resource Persons to the course are as follows:

1. Prof. Hamza Njozi
2. Sh. Tawaqal Juma
3. Prof. Muhammad Biraima
4. Prof. AbdulHafiz Walusimbi
5. Prof. AbulFadl Mohsen Ebrahim
6. Prof. Salisu Shehu
7. Dr. Uthman Sulaiman Kabuye

Application
The interested qualified brothers/sisters should apply on the attached form to reach the undermentioned not later than 10th June 2019. Due to limited space, first come criteria shall apply.

Send your application to:

Prof. Hamza Njozi,
Muslim University of Morogoro
Email: hamzamnjozi@gmail.com

Dr. Hamdun Sulayman,
Al-Maktoum College of Engineering & Technology, Dar-es-Salaam.
Tel: +255 752 592504
www.almaktoum.ac.tz
Email: h_sulayman@yahoo.com

Application Form

Personal Details

Surname: …………………………… Other Names: …………………………………………Age……..................

Address: ……

Telephone: …………………….........E-mail Address ………………………………………………………………

Educational Qualifications

First Degree …………………………………………………………………………………………........................

Institution …………………………………………………………………….............Year………………

Additional Qualifications

Institution…………………………………………………………………………….............Year………………

Current Place of Work (If you are not employed, please skip to the next section)

Name and Address of Organization:..

....

Position and Responsibilities ....

Current Institution of Study...

Name and Address of Institution:...

Program of Study and Area of Research ....

Motivation/ Purpose

Briefly describe below your motivation for wanting to participate in the IIIT Advanced Course

....

....

....

Brief Profile

Please provide a brief profile of yourself which will appear in the brochure for the school.

....

....

....

Recommendation

Recommendation from Your Academic Supervisor or Community Leader

……

Name ……………………………………………….............................Position ....

Signature……………………………………………..Date……………………

Testimony: This is to be signed by the applicant.
I testify that all the information provided in this form is correct.

Name ………………………………………………………Signature……………………...............Date……………