Preface

This is the first edition of the Directory of Policy Experts on Islamic Studies and Muslim Affairs. Since the tragic 9/11 attacks, issues directly relating to Muslims and Islam have been major and urgent topics in American policy and academic discourse. Yet there are few people who have a meaningful familiarity with these subjects; even fewer are actual experts with authentic knowledge of the relevant subjects. Although this inaugural directory is by no means comprehensive, it does provide a strong list of experts with individually deep and collectively broad knowledge of policy issues relating to Islam and Muslims. Many are Muslims and those who are not have demonstrated their contextualized understanding of their areas of expertise. This is invaluable at a time when persons with cursory or de-contextualized knowledge of Islam profess expertise.

This publication is a joint venture of the Association of Muslim Social Scientists of North America (AMSS), the Minaret of Freedom Institute (MFI), and the International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT). The Nomination Committee vetted the candidates who had been nominated by senior AMSS members. Katherine Bullock (AMSS), in particular nominated many of the candidates. Only nominees who agreed to make themselves available to respond to invitations were accepted for consideration. Candidates were included only if they have solid academic credentials and have demonstrated expertise in the areas for which they were nominated. In a very few cases candidates without advanced degrees or academic positions were accepted because they had proven their academic qualifications to the review committee through their published work. In all cases, candidates satisfied the Nomination Committee's standards regarding their ability to communicate effectively to the media and in policymaking and academic environments.

MFI program assistants Alejandro Beutel and Imran Malik and MFI's Koch Foundation summer intern Katherine Rada did much of the data input and formatting. We owe many thanks to the individuals who provided their input for this important resource beginning with the Nomination Committee consisting of Dr. Abubaker al-Shingieti (IIIT), Maliha Chishti (AMSS), Dr. Robert D. Crane (The Abraham Federation), Sheila Musaji (The American Muslim), Dr. Aneesah Nadir (Islamic Social Services Association), Dr. Iqbal Unus (IIIT), and Halil Yenigun (University of Virginia). Dr. Jamal Barzinji (IIIT) has also provided appreciated input and guidance. Robert D. Crane assisted with the proofreading, and Frances Eddy (MFI), Imran Malik, and Layla Sein (AMSS) did the final proofreading.

The information in this directory, as well as additional biographical information on the experts, is available on its website www.islamicresourcebank.org.

About the Sponsoring Organizations

Association of Muslim Social Scientists of North America (AMSS)

The Association of Muslim Social Scientists of North America was established in 1972 with the mission of providing a forum through which Islamic positions on various academic disciplines can be promoted, with an emphasis on the social sciences and humanities. AMSS is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization that has based its activities on the belief that the development of Islamic thought is vital for the prosperity of the Muslim world and for the continuity of the Islamic intellectual heritage. Its activities include holding annual and regional conferences and seminars in North America cosponsored by academic institutions, running an annual “Best Graduate Paper Awards Competition,” and publishing a quarterly academic journal, the American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences (AJISS).

AMSS’s ultimate aim is to be the leading international academic organization for excellence in the study of Islam, Muslims, and Muslim perspectives. AMSS strives to serve the interests of the larger Muslim community by bringing together Muslim and non-Muslim scholars in an academic setting to examine and define Islamic perspectives on issues of global concern that contribute to the prosperity of Muslims around the globe and the betterment of humanity.

AMSS is a nonprofit membership-based organization open to Muslim and non-Muslim members from the United States and Canada.

International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT)

The International Institute of Islamic Thought was established in 1981 (1401 A.H.) as a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit, academic, and cultural institution dedicated to promoting research, publications and conferences related to Islamic thought and contemporary social sciences. The Institute is governed by a Board of Trustees that meets annually and periodically elects one of its members to serve as President.

The Institute is committed to the development of Islamic scholarship in contemporary social sciences and humanities. Its mission is the revival and reform of Islamic thought. Its methodology is to help Muslims deal effectively with modern social challenges and, ultimately, contribute to the progress of civilization by giving it a specific meaning and direction derived from divine guidance. Through Islamic scholarship, the Institute hopes the global Muslim community (ummah) will regain its intellectual and cultural identity and reaffirm its presence as a partner in the progress of civilization. The Institute supports research projects that study the reconstruction of Islamic thought and worldview based on Qur'anic principles and the Sunnah.

Minaret of Freedom Institute (MFI)

The Minaret of Freedom Institute was founded in 1993 with a mission of educating both Muslims and non-Muslims. For non-Muslims, its mission is to counter distortions and misconceptions about Islamic beliefs and practices, demonstrate the Islamic origins of such modern values as the rule of law and sciences, including market economics, and advance the status of Muslim peoples whether they reside in the East or the West.

For Muslims, in fulfillment of the obligations laid upon them by the Qur'an and the Sunnah, its mission is to discover and publish the politico-economic policy implications of Islamic law (shari`ah) and their consequences on the economic well-being of the community, expose both American and Islamic-world Muslims to free market thought, educate Islamic religious and community leaders in economics and in the fact that liberty is a necessary, though not sufficient, condition for the achievement of a good society, and promote the establishment of free trade and justice (an essential common interest of Islam and the West).

MFI aims to implement these goals through independent scholarly research (ijtihad) into policy issues of concern to Muslim countries and/or to Muslims in America, translation of appropriate works on the free market into the languages of the Muslim world with introductions and commentaries by Muslim scholars, and the operation of a scholars exchange program to permit libertarian Muslims from abroad to spend time in contact with market-oriented Muslim scholars in America and have access to resources not available in their home countries.

The Minaret of Freedom Institute is a 501(c)(3) nonpartisan, tax-exempt entity. It relies upon voluntary contributions from private corporations, foundations, and individuals to continue its work.

Alphabetical List of Experts on Islam

We give here the names and contact information (title, affiliation, location, e-mail, phone, and web URLs) of the policy experts. Titles follow academic conventions (The prefix “Dr.” is used for PhDs as well as MDs and the prefix “Prof.” is used only for associate and full professors.) Cities are the locations of the experts themselves, not necessarily of their affiliated institutions. Policy sub-areas are indicated in parentheses after the main areas. Where no sub-area is listed or where “general” is listed as a sub-area, it indicates that the scholar has a broad knowledge of the policy area. ASSOCIATION OF MUSLIM HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

Arshia Wajid, President
526 39th Street
Downers Grove, IL 60515
Email: contact@amhp.us
<http://www.amhp.us/>

A listserv was created in May 2004 to connect Muslim health professionals and students from various disciplines across North America. The purpose of the listserv was, and continues to be, a means to serve as a forum for discussion on healthcare issues as well as a networking tool.

Recognizing that the Muslim health community is largely fragmented, members expressed an interest in establishing an organization, the Association of Muslim Health Professionals (AMHP), which would serve the needs of a growing population of Muslim health professionals.

The first organizational meeting was held at the 42nd Annual ISNA Convention in Rosemont, IL in September 2004 to discuss the current and future challenges facing Muslim health professionals as well as to establish AMHP's mission, vision and goals. Three committees have been established in order to execute AMHP's mission and vision.

AMHP represents a diverse body of health professionals and students including, but not limited to, public health practitioners, pharmacists, nurses, dentists, allied health professionals, health care administrators, nutritionists, social and mental health workers, and physicians. In addition to fostering collaboration among health professionals, AMHP is committed to increasing awareness of the importance of public health as a means to improving the overall health status of our communities.
