THE MIRACULOUS LANGUAGE OF THE QUR'AN: Evidence of Divine Origin

by Bassam Saeh

PB: 978-1-56564-665-0, $8.95

Kindle/Google Play: $4.50

Pages/year: 104pp/2015

This study illustrates why the language of the Qur'an is miraculous, unique, and evidence of divine authority. The author compares the language of the Qur'an with the language of pre-Islamic poetry, the Prophet's words (hadith), and the language of the Arabs both past and present, to demonstrate that although the Qur'an was revealed in Arabic it was at the same time an Arabic which was entirely new. Original and early Muslim audiences viewed this as miraculous and responded to the Qur'an's words, sounds, rhythms, etc. in a manner consistent with a deeper appreciation of its beauty and majesty which modern ears, trained by familiarity, and despite being surrounded by all manner of dictionaries and studies, are at a loss to capture.

The author attempts to remove this veil and present the Qur'an to readers as if hearing it for the first time, to bring to life some of this wonder. In doing so he guides readers to appreciate the beauty of the Qur'an, to become more immersed in it, and to have a clearer understanding of its structure and flow. Devoting special attention to Surah Al Muddaththir (Chapter 74), to underpin his analysis, Saeh thus brings the Revelation to life, to demonstrate that each surah has distinct features and characteristics that make it stand out uniquely within the design and sweep of the whole.

In his passionate devotion to the task of inviting others to Islam, Muhammad Al-Ghazali (1917-1996) presented Muslims with a powerful critique of themselves, not only in their endemic failure to project Islam in the best, most reasoned light, but also in their betrayal of the Qur'an's spiritual principles and the highest standards set by the Prophet Muhammad. This work analyzes Al-Ghazali's critique of du'at (those inviting to Islam) and the practice of da'wah work itself (the call to Islam). It also examines his methodology, various proposed solutions, and the juristic responses to his perspective.

MAPPING THE SECULAR MIND:

Modernity's Quest for a Godless Utopia

The secular mind had a grand plan, to establish an earthly paradise, a utopia of the here and now, a modern civilization governed by human reason, rationality, and the triumph of progress. Away from the hype, emancipating humanity from the 'shackles' of God and religion has proved no easy matter. Mapping the Secular Mind examines issues of reason, rationality, and secular materialism, to explore how these mental perceptions, or ways of mapping the world, have affected human interaction and sociological development.

CONTEMPORARY APPROACHES TO QUR'AN AND SUNNAH

edited by Mahmoud Ayoub

The Qur'an and Sunnah are the two primary sources of Muslim faith, life, law and morality. The Qur'an is for Muslims the foundation of their faith and the Sunnah is the framework of their morality. Together they constitute the two sources of the law of God, a guide to prosperity and happiness in this life and to the bliss of the hereafter. Although the Qur'an and Sunnah are materially and formally two independent sources, they are inextricably bound in a dynamic relationship.

And this is perhaps more needed today than ever before, as mankind is increasingly called upon to exercise tolerance in a markedly volatile world, where living and working together in diversity is fast becoming the norm.

Can the Muslim countries formulate such a strategy within the framework of the secularist worldview of capitalism, socialism and the welfare state? Can Islam help them realize their goals? If so, what kind of policy package do Islamic teachings imply? This book is an effort to answer these and other related questions.

What is the legally prescribed penalty, if any, for apostasy (al-riddah), and how does this relate to the demand for religious tolerance as stipulated in verse 2:256 of the Qur'an "There shall be no compulsion in matters of faith"? It is an established fact that the Prophet never, in his entire life, put an apostate to death. Yet, the issue remains one of the most controversial to have afflicted the Muslim world down the centuries.

The Ethics of Disagreement may be perceived as an explanation of the etiquette envisioned by Islam for all those engaged in discourse and intellectual dialogue. UNDERSTANDING MAQASID AL-SHARI'AH: A Contemporary Perspective

by Musfir bin Ali Al-Qahtani

PB: 978-1-56564-666-7, $14.95

Kindle/Google Play: $7.50

Pages/year: 212pp/2015

Dr. Musafir bin Ali Al-Qahtani's work contributes to the ever growing body of scholarly literature in the field of maqasid al-Shari'ah (higher objectives of Islamic law). Understanding Maqasid al-Shari'ah calls for the development of a juridical sense that is finely tuned to the higher objectives and purposes of Islamic rulings, the aims of which are the formulation of a new methodology in understanding the revealed texts and the reform of Muslim thought and its application. The author draws attention to the importance of understanding various levels of maqasid, including distinguishing between primary aims (al-maqasid al-asliyyah) and secondary aims (al-maqasid al-tabi'ah). Al-Qahtani asserts that a positive understanding of the objectives of the Shari'ah should produce affirming human and cultural developments in Muslim societies. The real strength of this work, however, is in the author's application of higher objectives and aims to different areas of jurisprudence, such as in deriving and issuing religious rulings (ifta'). and to important social issues and problems present in Muslim societies, such as extremism, jihad, commanding right and forbidding wrong, social change, crisis of Muslim thought, countering religious excessiveness, the need for recreation and leisure, citizenship and nation-belonging, spreading beauty and harmony in Islam, and the role of Muslim women in society.

Since the publication of Samuel Huntington's "The Clash of Civilizations" concern about civilization has been reintroduced into the debate on the world order. Malek Bennabi (1905–1973), prominent Algerian thinker and great Muslim intellectual, intently focused on unravelling the causes of Muslim decline and the success of Western civilization and culture. The key problem he theorized lay not in the Qur'an or Islamic faith but in Muslims themselves.

The fate of civilization lies in the balance of culture, not power. This Mona Abul-Fadl penetrating work argues that the terms of the culture of our times will determine the future of politics and societies. Islam continues to be, as much as it was in the past, at the hub and crossroads of contemporary civilization. The difference from a historical perspective, lies in the West's control of the political setting, the primary factor in qualifying the terms of today's civilization, and in setting its pace and direction accordingly.

THE QUR'AN AND THE SUNNAH

by Isma'il Al Faruqi and Lois Lamya Al Faruqi

PB: 978-1-56564-655-1, $6.95

Kindle/Google Play: $3.50 – Pages/year: 80pp/2014

The Qur'an signified the divine presence and commanded the greatest honor. The Qur'an, Muhammad claimed with Qur'anic approval, indeed dictation, is so beautiful that it is inimitable; it is so inimitable that it is miraculous. It is therefore not the work of humans but of God. In the Sunnah the values of Islam were given form and became alive. They throbbed with moving power. The Sunnah supplied the missing link between thinking and doing, between ideational apperception and action, between thought and life and history.

THE ARTS OF ISLAMIC CIVILIZATION

by Isma'il Al Faruqi

PB: 978-1-56564-558-5, $4.50

Kindle/Google Play: $2.50 – Pages/year: 34pp/2013

In dealing with any aspect of Islamic civilization, its final raison d'être and creative base must be seen as resting on the Qur'an. Islamic culture is, in fact, a "Qur'anic culture"; for its definitions, its structures, its goals, and its methods for execution of those goals are all derived from that series of revelations from God to the Prophet Muhammad.

There can be no doubt that the essence of Islamic civilization is Islam; or that the essence of Islam is tawhid, the act of affirming Allah to be the One, absolute, transcendent Creator, Lord and Master of all that is. These two fundamental premises are self evident. They have never been in doubt by those belonging to this civilization or participating in it.

The International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT) is a private non-profit, academic, and cultural organization concerned with issues of Islamic thought. The Institute was founded in 1981 and is headquartered in Herndon, Virginia, USA with branch offices in several major capitals throughout the world.

The Institute is dedicated to promoting research, producing publications and organizing conferences related to Islamic thought and contemporary social sciences.

The IIIT seeks to integrate contemporary scientific methods and knowledge within an Islamic framework through ijtihad in order to overcome the intellectual and cultural crisis in which the Muslim world is mired and thereby to reform and revitalize Islamic thought.

The Institute has become a forum through which Muslim scholars have rekindled an ongoing debate on Islamic intellectualism and thought through research, publications, conferencing and networking. IIIT has published over 750 titles primarily in Arabic and English, as well as in major languages such as French, Turkish, Chinese, Urdu, Farsi, Malay and others.

The Institute also publishes two quarterly refereed academic journals:

- American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences (AJISS) – English
- Islamiyyat al-Ma'rifah: Journal of Contemporary Islamic Thought – Arabic
